Marrakech is the third largest city in Morocco after Casablanca and Rabat, has the largest traditional market (souk) in Morocco and also one of the busiest squares in Africa and the world, Djemaa el Fna.

Where to stay in Marrakech? Dar Les Cigognes is a beautiful oasis tucked tightly away from the crowds. The location is second to none – a less than ten-minute interesting walk to the hustle and bustle of the city centre.

This boutique hotel is named after the wonderful storks that made their nests upon the city's walls, which you can view from your front row seat on the riad's rooftop.

On the gorgeous garden roof terrace each morning special breakfasts of fresh local breads and pastries baked with home-made preserves are served. The staff is outstanding, making sure all of your needs are met. Braham was a super driver and guide. We will not forget his winning charm and diplomacy.

The Service overall was outstanding and our room was large and lovely. We indulged in a hammam and enjoyed it so much and wanted to book another massage the next day.

The location is ideal – surrounded by people, motorbikes, bikes, cars, and on entering a small door in the wall – complete silence and tranquillity. We would recommend this riad to anyone visiting Marrakech.
